About

WHAT I DO: As the franchise mentor, I help executives, entrepreneurs and other prospective business owners determine if there is a perfectly matched business opportunity by providing personalized franchise consulting services.

WHAT MAKES ME UNIQUE: I started my first business when I was still in the Marines, and it took off from there. My wife and I have owned and operated 15 different business concepts and still run two franchises (a fitness center 🏋️ and a pest control company 🐜). I've even passed the entrepreneurial spirit onto my children. My sons both own a franchise (an apparel company 🧢) and my teenage daughter has already started her own business 📱👧.

My goal now is to provide future business owners with the guidance and knowledge I wish I had when I was starting out.

HOW IT WORKS: I get to know candidates personally and learn about their specific goals and desires. We'll dive deep into finances, expectations, lifestyle and more. Next, I present them with franchise ownership opportunities that line up with what they're hoping to accomplish. It's all about what works for them. Best of all, my services are free (I get paid a fee by the franchise companies, who know my process and recognize the quality and fit of the referrals I provide).

WHO I WORK WITH: I partner with executives and high earners at various stages of their careers who want to do one or more of the following:

- 📅 Increase freedom and flexibility
- 👴 Build for retirement
- 💰 Develop a passive income stream
- 👪 Create generational wealth
- 👨👩👧 Provide an opportunity for their children
- 🔥 Dive into a new hands-on career
- 🏠 Make an investment
